Introduction

About Murray Harcourt

Murray Harcourt is a respected, independent boutique firm of audit, tax and financial advisory specialists with a passion for being a commercial, proactive and forward thinking client resource.

With an impressive client list of dynamic owner-managed businesses and mid-sized corporates across the Yorkshire region, Murray Harcourt offers all the services one would expect from a full-service accountancy firm, but we do it a little differently.

Clients can turn to us for a quality, value-added audit, outsource their entire finance function to us, or they can draw on trusted tax, corporate finance, or other business advisory support whenever they need it. But whichever way clients choose to engage with us, they are always pleasantly surprised by the time we invest in them, our flexibility and accessibility, our transparency in fees and, importantly, our depth of commercial experience with organisations similar to theirs.

With Murray Harcourt you would be working across our client base of some of the UK's leading organisations with turnover of up to £100m.

Successful applicants

At Murray Harcourt, personal characteristics are just as important as qualifications. We are looking to employ candidates with excellent communication, time management and teamwork skills.

We want candidates with a desire to embrace and complete all tasks with enthusiasm. We are looking for problem solvers who will look for solutions to client needs and individuals who can demonstrate a willingness to take responsibility and who can show the necessary initiative to lead a project or team.

In return we offer a fun, supportive and stimulating team environment where, uniquely, you can help shape the future of the business and its goals.
